State Police Organisations

The controlling authority of a State Police force is the Department of the Home of the State Government. The additional chief secretary (Home) or Principal Secretary (Home), generally an Indian Administrative Service (IAS) officer, acts as the executive agency of the State Home Department. Each state and union territory of India has a state police force, headed by a director general of police ranked officer.

Under the inspector general are a number of police "Ranges" composed of three to six districts, headed by Deputy Inspectors General. District police headquarters are commanded by Superintendents of Police (SP).

Other Elements of State Police & Hierarchy. Each district is divided into sub-divisions or circles headed by a Deputy Superintendent of police (DSP). Each sub-division is made up of several police stations under the command of an Inspector of police. In rural areas, a Sub-inspector is in-charge of a police station.
